

Western Horseman & Cowboy Artists of America Youth Art Contest 2020

Contest Guidelines

Western Horseman and Cowboy Artists of America invite you to enter your best drawing or painting in our 2020 youth art contest. All artwork must depict Western horses as the subject.

- One champion and reserve champion are selected in each of three age divisions: 8 and under; 9 to 13; and 14 to 18.
- One overall grand champion is awarded.

Winners judged by: Western Horseman Senior Editor Jennifer Denison and a Cowboy Artists of America member.

Prizes:

--Grand champion wins a trip to the 2020 Cowboy Artists of America art exhibition and sale. The award includes transportation expenses (up to $1,200) and admission to the sale events for winner and two guests. It also includes one two-night hotel stay.

--Champion in each age division receives:

- Signed and numbered limited edition print, Ranch Horse, by CAA artist Mikel Donahue
- Winning artwork published in Western Horseman
- $75 in Western Horseman books and/or products
- two-year subscription to Western Horseman

--Reserve champion in each age division receives:

- $75 in Western Horseman books and/or products
- two-year subscription to Western Horseman

--The 14 to 18 age division top three pieces also receive scholarships from the Cowboy Artists of America Joe Beeler Foundation to be used toward art education and/or materials: Champion, $1,000; reserve, $500; third place, $250.

--The top 10 submissions in each age group will appear in a slideshow on westernhorseman.com.

Western Horseman will announce winners on July 1. Artwork is returned after that date.
